RELATIONSHIPS ARE OF UTMOST IMPORTANCE for Sue Luft-Marcotte, D.D.S., and the entire staff at Marcotte Dental Associates, PC. From the moment new patients walk through the door, they're welcomed as friends and treated as members of the Marcotte "dental family."

Respect for individual needs, concern for patient goals, a love of beautiful teeth, and an excitement about technology and state-of-the-art dentistry infuse Dr. Sue's conversations about her profession, which she began in her father's dental office in 1996. Some 20 years later, the family-owned family practice is her own.

Dr. Sue is a responsive, energetic professional who balances experienced recommendations with patients' desired outcomes to provide treatment plans that are tailored to individual needs. Patient concerns are taken seriously, and Dr. Sue gladly responds to after-hours emergency calls, texts, or emails with advice and encouragement.

"Trust is an essential element," Dr. Sue says, "and personalized care takes time. It's not for everyone." At Marcotte Dental Associates, PC, people of all ages who are looking for compassionate general and cosmetic boutique dentistry will find what they're looking for. ■
